Additional Information

Client Profile:

Meet the Smith Family: A Vibrant Household Seeking a Multifunctional Living Room Redesign

The Smith family comprises a bustling household of five, including parents and three energetic children ranging in age from 3 to 10 years old. They are eager to transform their living room into a versatile space that accommodates the needs of each family member while maintaining a relaxing atmosphere for both everyday living and entertaining guests.

1. Family Dynamics:

- The Smiths are a close-knit family who value quality time spent together in their home.
- With children of varying ages, they require a living room that caters to a range of activities, from playtime and homework to family movie nights and hosting gatherings with friends and relatives.

2. Design Preferences:

- The Smiths gravitate towards a neutral color palette, finding solace in calming shades that create a serene ambiance.
- They appreciate texture and patterns and seek to incorporate them throughout the space to add depth and visual interest.

3. Furniture Needs:

- The Smiths have relocated their existing furniture to the basement and are in need of all-new pieces for the living room redesign.

Presentation Board: Please include all of your items on your 20x30 presentation board. All materials need to be securely fastened to the board. There is no budget for your board, but you need to have a list of your items with cost and where to find them on the back of your board. You do not need to list the cost of the paint or flooring, but you do need to tell where you would purchase it from (where you got samples from).

Floor Plan information:

Using a floor planning platform, create the living room based on the following dimensions. You will need to print this and display it on your board with the dimensions showing. This may mean printing twice.

West Wall dimensions:

- 20 ft long, with an 8ft bay window centered on the way. The window is 2 ft off of the floor and 13 inch down from the ceiling. The window is 59 inches high.
- 7 inches off the wall, there is a standard doorway of 36 inches.

North Wall dimensions:

- 153 inches long, with a 72-inch centered brick fireplace

East Wall dimensions:

- 16 ft flat wall with a 4 ft entrance leading into the dining room space, between the east and south walls.

South Wall dimensions:

- 160 inches long, flat wall.

Paper portion:

- A paragraph will need to be on the back for each of these categories:
 - How did you come up with your idea?
 - How does it fit the family's needs?
 - What type of color scheme did you use and what is their design style?
 - Why did you select the fabrics, flooring, window treatments, accessories, etc?
